

Download The Michigan Divorce Book With Minor Children

“I have been meaning to tell you this, but you and your team have given me peace in my life. The work you have performed on the divorce action and house sale issue has provide me a sense of peace because capable people are properly handling my legal issues.Divorces are handled in the Domestic Division of the Washtenaw County Trial Court. A principal component of the jurisdiction of this court is hearing and deciding issues related to the termination of marriages.The Family Division of Circuit Court has jurisdiction over all proceedings involving families with minor children, including: domestic relations - divorces with minor children; paternity; child custody, parenting time, and support; juvenile delinquency; child neglect and abuse; adoption; emancipation; and name changes.Basic Information about the Packets Divorce packets are available in the Law Library, located in the lower level of the Central Library.; There is a $3 dollar charge per packet to cover printing costs. Packets are available for divorces with or without minor children.