Why I Wore Lipstick To My Mastectomy (known as Lipstick in some countries) is a 2006 television film that aired on Lifetime Television and starred Sarah Chalke. It is based on the memoir of the same name, written by Geraldyn Lucas. The book and the TV movie, depict Geraldyn Lucas's fight with breast cancer. What I got with Why I Wore Lipstick to My Mastectomy is a book about a young woman who was so beautiful that doctors cried over the fact she would lose her breast. She was so beautiful that cabbies stopped to cry with her and kiss her hand when she told them she had cancer.
